

SUSPECT CITY CLUB PLOT FOR 10-HOUR STRIKE

Federal Agents Spent Conspiracy to Start "I-Won't-Work" Movement Sept. 16.

The bold outlines of a gigantic conspiracy on the part of several hundred City Club members to overthrow the established order of things for as long as ten hours together have been uncovered by Federal agents.

The date set for the uprising has been definitely fixed as next Saturday, September 16, according to secret documents now in Government hands. Secret Service agents who have been shadowing prominent members of the club's house committee say that the Noyes estate at Eligo, Md., has been chosen as the scene of the revolutionaries' perniculous activities.

This remarkable statement is taken from a Washington publication—The City Club Critic—and is considered authentic. The publication, labeled "Barbecue Extra," was released last night, and is expected to be the signal for unholy mirth on the part of the plotters.

The announcement cleverly disguises the gathering as a "Barbecue, Field Day, Tilted Tournament, and Tournament Ball." After an afternoon of sports, beginning at 1 o'clock, according to documents in official hands, the members will have a barbecue, and will then drive back to town to bring their wives and women guests back to the Noyes farm for an evening dance.

The clue which led to the unraveling by Federal agents of the monstrous plot is found in the fact that Henry Ford has announced he will shut his automobile factories on the same day. This makes both affairs look like a deliberately planned conspiracy to suspend the business activities by a general strike.

Threat of Injunction.

Federal officials will keep a sharp watch for the issuance of any more radical red bolshevik literature concerning the affair, it is stated, and will promptly meet such action with the issuance of a fifty-page injunction, the very reading of which, it is believed, will prevent further danger.

According to the Tribune, which is admittedly in a position to know the inside details of the affair, nearly 300 members of the City Club are so far involved, and a part of the army has been called out. For Myer cavalrymen are to stage a sharp, cavalry drill before the gathering, which is expected to overawe the ringleaders and so quell any incipient violence.

It is further charged that local business houses may close early Saturday. The wives of many City Club members are said to be implicated in the plot.

According to The Tribune, quantities of radical literature have been found by investigators. In a list labeled "List to Lancing Tournament" have been found the names of Ray Semmes, "Big Oscar" Thorup, Dave Dunigan, Fulton Brylawski, H. H. Shelton, "Young Bill" Doling, Ed C. Harris and several other well-known Reds. This list is alleged to be the nucleus of a Ku Klux Klan organization, due to the mention in the document of horses and costumes.

Advocacy of force and violence is seen in another document labeled "Quota Throwers," which the investigators believe is a disguised title for a squad of bomb throwers. What is believed to be a "Young Communist Society" is listed under the innocent title of "Baseball Team." Among the names in this list are Dewey Zirklin, Charles G. Graves, Bill Murray, C. F. Shropshire, Pearson Meeks, John Hancock and an additional list of "prospects," thought to be innocent young Americans scheduled for conversion to radical doctrines.

A Nihilistic Group.

Another group, believed to be Russian nihilists, are labeled in equally innocent manner as "Benedict Baseball Team." This group, according to "Big Bill" Haywood, chief of the Department of Iniquities, is probably the most desperate body of men ever gathered together in America. Nothing but desperation, Haywood says, would ever have led them into such vulnerable positions.

Additional names were located under other suspicious designations, including a number who were listed as "tennis players," but who are believed to be I. W. W.'s looking for an excuse to avoid work.

Among those whom the Government is now seeking as "brains" of the entire conspiracy are Henry E. Stringer, Charles Demontet, Frank Bryson, Paul Lum, Percy Russell, Oscar Thorup, Fred Pyle, and two or three others.

Several of them have disappeared from their accustomed haunts, leaving deceptive information that they were judging beauty contests, looking for coal, or taking vacations.

An indication of the desperate lengths to which the alleged villains have gone is the fact that they have actually prepared a road map, showing the way from the City Club to the Noyes farm. This exceedingly incriminating document has been reprinted in the fearless Tribune, with a caption, "X Marks the Spot."

Demosthenes Figures

In Congress Campaign

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 9.—Demosthenes lived about 384 B. C., and spoke a language now dead, but he is, nevertheless, a live issue in the Congressional campaign being waged by Fred Schade.

Made in a speech accused Demosthenes of being a traitor to his country, and called the ancient orator a "dirty Greek." The Spokane Greek colony demanded a retraction. Schade refused to retract and told the "Greek boys" to study up on Greek history.

Lightning Control Plan Fails in Sanity Test

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Sept. 9.—Herbert Redgers, a well-known young man, of Clinton district, this county, so insisted that he had patented a device for controlling thunder and lightning that friends became uneasy about him, and had the county lunacy commission investigate his mental condition.

The commission committed him to the State insane asylum at Weston.

Injuries Received Ten Years Ago Are Fatal

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Sept. 9.—William Claude Jones, thirty-eight, is dead as the result of an accident ten years ago while he was employed as machinist at the Cotton Belt shops.

Mr. Jones was assisting in making repairs to a locomotive when a heavy piece of machinery fell upon him, and his back was injured. He was confined to his bed several months, but finally recovered sufficiently to get about on crutches. Complications set in recently, resulting in his death.

Collie Sacrifices Life To Save Little Master

PUEBLO, Colo., Sept. 9.—"Moate," a dead collie, is a hero. Spying a big centipede on Otto B. Thum, Jr., four, at a picnic, the dog shot out his paw, knocking the centipede from the child. The child was unhurt.

"Moate" soon became paralyzed by poison and died.

I First Compounded This Newer Form of Iron For My Own Neighbors

Their Praise of This Remarkable Remedy Has Spread So Rapidly That Now Over 4,000,000 People Use Nuxated Iron Annually.

Years ago I began to wonder at the great number of my own friends and neighbors who were always ailing, complaining and doctoring, without ever seeming to get any better. Both working men and their wives were frequently all tired out in the evening, and a great many were weak, nervous and run-down. One had pains in the back and thought he had kidney trouble. Another had pains around heart, palpitations and dizziness, and was sure he was suffering from heart disease. Still others had severe headaches, floating spots before the eyes, tender spots along the spine and a great variety of alarming symptoms.

For years I made a special study of this condition, consulting a great number of physicians and chemists. An immense number of investigations by physicians all over the country showed that three people out of every four meet lack 100% iron in their blood. Lack of iron in the blood is the greatest of all debilitating weaknesses. It is the iron in our blood that enables you to get the nourishment out of your food. Without iron, nothing you eat does you any good. Your heart, lungs and kidneys and all your vital organs get their nourishment from the blood stream, and when the blood lacks iron and is thin, pale and watery, you may suffer from the symptoms of a great number of diseases when the real and true cause of all your trouble is a lack of iron in the blood.

In the old days people often took metallic iron, which some physicians claim is not absorbed at all. In compounding this newer form of iron which I call Nuxated Iron, I employed a special form of iron, which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. Unlike the older forms of iron, it will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach, and it is ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood.

It is the people whose blood is rich in iron who possess great strength, force and energy. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test:

See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two 5-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times a day after meals for two weeks, then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. An astonishing number of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, have greatly improved their health and increased their strength, energy and endurance simply by taking this newer form of iron. For sale by all druggists.

G. W. U. EXPECTS EXCEPTIONAL ENROLLMENT

Academic Year Begins on September 27—Many Changes in Summer.

George Washington University will throw open its doors for its one hundred and second academic year on September 2. All departments of the university will be in full swing at that time, registrations having started Tuesday.

From present indications the university will have an unusually large enrollment. In the arts, science, law, medicine and pharmacy departments prospective students have taken advantage of the past week and have straightened out their courses for the coming winter session.

More than 150 courses in arts and science and law are given in the afternoon classes, which start at 5:10 p. m. Announcement is made that additional courses are offered this fall in commerce, French, Spanish and law.

The Law School is situated at 1435 K street northwest. Enrollment is heavy there, according to Secretary Joseph Jordan. The arts and science department registration office has been changed to 3033 G street.

The Woodhull building, left to the university by the late Gen. Maxwell Van Zant Woodhull, has been made the administration building, and houses the offices of the president, Howard L. Hodgkins; the treasurer, Charles W. Holmes; the secretary, Oliver L. Kayser, and the dean of women, Anna L. Rose, as well as the registrar for arts and science, Elizabeth Kincannon.

The old administration building as well as the former offices in Lister Hall, have been utilized for much needed class rooms for the arts and science department.

Announcement of additional appointments to the university faculties will be made shortly by President Hodgkins. Many new instructors have been added to the faculties, and a general expansion of all departments has been made during the summer in preparation for what is expected to be a big year.

Offer Prize for Prettiest Legs in the World

PARIS, Sept. 9. ANNOUNCEMENT by a prominent French daily that a big prize is to be offered for the "owner of the most beautiful legs in the world" has elicited a chorus of ridicule and some dismay from prominent French beauties.

"It is well known that Mistinguett, the actress, has the loveliest legs on earth," says Baron de Waleffe, famous essayist, "but presumably professionals are to be barred."

"In this case it would seem that such a contest would be in the worst taste, since the prize would almost certainly be for America, where girls are taught to take care of their legs as well as their complexions."

Picks Fight With Bear, Losing Hand in Action

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Bill Blythe challenged Major Jack Allen's trick bear to a fight on Lincoln avenue, West Hoboken.

The bear, a small black one that acts in vaudeville, was not anxious to fight. Blythe tried to arouse the bear's fighting instinct by a right swing to the bear's nose. It worked. The bear warmed up to the business in hand and took Bill's hand in its mouth. Bill will proceed through the rest of life with a section of his left hand missing. Then the bear removed Bill's trousers and shirt. It was great fun for the bear. Finally the bear knocked Bill for a keg of champagne and was just about to relieve him of a leg when Major Allen and a couple of policemen induced the animal to call it a night.

By Cosmopolitan News Service. LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9.—Funeral services were held today for Mrs. Martha Nelson Beaton, wife of Kenneth C. Beaton, known to newspaper and magazine readers as "K. C. B."

The services were conducted at the Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Cemetery, Glendale, and were attended by a large number of friends. Scores of letters and telegrams expressing sympathy have been received by Mr. Beaton from all parts of the United States. Many of the messages paid tribute to Mrs. Beaton's kindness in devoting herself to charity work.

Mrs. Beaton died Thursday night at the Beaton home, 1339 North Western avenue.

"Watch Me Die," Says Boy and Pulls Trigger

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Playfully asking his chum to "watch him commit suicide," Jesse Grant, fourteen, put a revolver to his head and pulled the trigger. He died a moment later with a bullet through his brain.

The boys had found the revolver in a dresser drawer and "didn't know it was loaded."

SIXTEENTH ST. FAIR TO EXTEND ANOTHER WEEK

Kallipolis Grotto Will Continue Carnival Held Under Auspices of Eastern Star.

The Kallipolis Grotto, whose members believe in having a good time and know how to have it, will continue the fun and frolic at the fair at Sixteenth and Lamont streets, which the Eastern Star relinquished control of last night after entertaining thousands of Washingtonians in the last two weeks.

Decision to take over and operate the carnival for another week was reached by the Grotto last night. A number of new attractions will be added. The famous Grotto band will give a concert every evening and the Grotto orchestra will furnish music for dancing in the big open-air pavilion. Several additional novelty booths will be installed, including a score of novelty games, a gypsy camp, refreshment booths and Venetian swings for the children.

Dancing, however, will be made one of the outstanding features of the fair this week, and those in charge are anticipating crowds even larger than those of the last two weeks, due to the closing of the amusement parks. In connection with the dancing, special exhibition eccentric dances will be introduced each evening by professionals.

Under the Grotto supervision the fair will be held for the benefit of the various units of that fraternity and the Eastern Star Home. John J. P. Mullane, director of the huge bazaar for the Eastern Star, will continue in that capacity.

With the exception of Labor Day, the crowd at the fair last night was the largest since its opening. A concert at 7 o'clock will open the fair each evening this week. The dancing will begin shortly afterwards.

Says Cows Give More Milk When Music Is Played

MUSIC hath charms for the tame as well as the wild beast. Even cows appreciate the melodious machinations of an electric piano.

James G. Sterchi, a farmer, of Dante, Tenn., has made tests of music on cows, while they were being milked, and has arrived at the conclusion that they yield from a pint to a quart more milk under such harmonious conditions than otherwise.

Mr. Sterchi starts the electric piano in his barn morning and evening before his 100 cows are milked, and continues the music until milking time is over.

Under the Grotto supervision the fair will be held for the benefit of the various units of that fraternity and the Eastern Star Home. John J. P. Mullane, director of the huge bazaar for the Eastern Star, will continue in that capacity.

'CAROLINA JOE' IS FREED FROM JAIL

Suspect Held for Months in Weber Murder Case Dismissed as Innocent.

After being held several months in the jail at Marlboro, Md., for the action of the grand jury, charged with murdering Mrs. Weber at White Station last winter, "Carolina Joe" Keller was discharged by Justice of the Peace Robert Joyce, of Mt. Rainier, Md.

State's Attorney J. Wilson Ryan on behalf of the State asked that the case against "Carolina Joe" be dismissed as it was the belief of the county authorities that the negro was an innocent man. Ryan asked the court that the Baltimore authorities had assigned several detectives to the case from that city and that the entire trail near White's station had been searched without finding any evidence.

Owing to the fact that the negro at the time of his trial insisted on telling the police officials lies with reference to his actions it was deemed best to hold him in jail. Several representatives of his race, including his brother from Summerville, S. C., were in court to take care of him upon his release from the grasp of the law. The sheriff of Summerville has been instructed to keep an eye on "Carolina Joe" in case he is ever wanted again by the Maryland officials.

Deputy Sheriff Ed Pumphrey with several other police officers escorted the negro and his friends out of the town to the District line, to prevent any disorder.

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Woman Relied Upon Lydia F. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Emporia, Kansas.—"I began using Lydia F. Pinkham's medicines years ago when I was a girl. For several years I had severe pains in my menstrual periods, making me very weak and interfering with my regular duties. I tried several remedies without obtaining relief. I was induced to try Lydia F. Pinkham's vegetable Compound by friends and it restored me to normal health. I often have occasion to do so, and I can recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends who have troubles similar to my own. You may use these facts as a testimonial."

EVA ALDRICH, 218 Union St., Emporia, Kansas.

There are many women who first used our Vegetable Compound during their girlhood days. They found it a valuable help during trying periods. In later years they use it whenever they feel those annoying symptoms which women often have.
